IIC (Institution's Innovation Council - An Initiative of Ministry of Education, Government of India )

Venue:
Ambedkar Hall
IIMT College of Law, Greater Noida

Aim and Objective of the Conference

The main objective of the conference is to provide a platform to academicians, researchers, industry experts, students and practitioners to engage in meaningful dialogue in context of the Legal trends that are influencing social transformation in India. The conference is an opportunity for participants to exchange their ideas, experiences and suggestions on "Law and Social Transformation in India: Society and Legal Institutions in transition." It also provides a multidisciplinary platform to discuss concerns as well as practical challenges faced by society in the transition phase. This conference aims to analyze various kinds of changes, impact of changes, role of human agency in transforming India. This conference aims to comprehend the limits of this legal mechanism in managing the process of institutional change in dynamic systems such as socio-cultural or politico-legal systems. The goal of the event is to explain social phenomena, which have their own dynamics. Any attempt by law to alter them without taking into account the underlying reality would inevitably lead to failure would be a matter of discussion. It will provide an opportunity to the research community to showcase their ideas and explore new ones through engaging discussion and feedback.
